

I would like Indiana's telephone privacy act to be left alone. I enjoy being able to have dinner, do homework and have bath time without telemarket phone calls all night long.